I chose my album because I liked it, I think the artist is cool, and I believe the album has a cool aesthetic. I listen to the album and artist regularly, so I was just waiting for a chance to write about it. Pretty simple.

As for my revisions, all I really had to do was put it into MLA format and add a few more details on the aesthetics and vibe of the album specifically. Other than that, everything was pretty much perfect based on the reviews I got.

That's been pretty consistent for everything I've written. Very minimal changes are typically needed since I do my best to make things perfect the first time. "Do it right the first time," as they say.

There's really not much else to say about my revisions. Writing for this class has been good practice. My typing speed and ability to quickly come up with sentences have become faster, so that's nice.

Overall, writing this essay was easy; correcting it was even easier, and I think I did a nice job.

Nothing else to say, really. Easy experience. Nice practice.
